

The Jane R. Perlman Fellowship Program Nurse Practitioner and Physician Assistant Fellowship in Emergency Medicine

Topic (Module): GU/Renal

Length: ___ weeks

Objective	Content	Methodology	Instructor	Time	Evaluation
1. Identify and manage potentially serious infectious and non-infectious male GU conditions seen in the ED 2. Demonstrate appropriate assessment and management of the male patient presenting with GU trauma 3. Discuss and interpret selected diagnostic studies indicated for GU	I. Selected male Genitourinary conditions A. Traumatic: 1. Genital injury B. Infectious: 1. Epididymitis, Prostatitis, orchitis C. Diagnostic studies 1. UA, Urine C& S 2. Ultrasound 3. Renal imaging 4. Laboratory (serum) tests D. Hernia E. Urinary retention F. Pediatric considerations 1. Circumcision: bleeding, infection	Lecture Discussion Clinical experiences Simulation	R. Gimbel A. Ruiz	1 hour	Direct observation Simulation evaluation

patients in the ED
4. Identify and manage the patient with renal calculi 5. . Identify and manage the patient with pyelonephritis	V. Selected renal conditions A. Pyelonephritis 1. Assessment 2. Management & disposition 3. High risk patients B. Renal calculi 1. Diagnostic imaging a. US vs CT 2. ED management	Lecture Discussion Clinical experiences Simulation		1 hour	Direct observation Simulation evaluation

7/14/14