

The Jane R. Perlman Fellowship Program
Nurse Practitioner and Physician Assistant Fellowship in Emergency Medicine

Topic (Module): OB/GYNE

Length: ____ weeks

Objective	Content	Methodology	Instructor	Time	Evaluation
1. Identify and manage patients with common gynecologic complaints in the ED	I. Selected GYNE conditions A. Retained foreign bodies B. Genital injury C. Vaginitis D. Pediatric considerations E. DUB F. Ovarian torsion G. Diagnostic considerations 1. US 2. CT 3. Laboratory analyses	Lecture Discussion Clinical Simulation	L. Gibbons Welch, CNM	1 hour	Direct observation Simulation evaluation
2. Discuss the management of male and female patients with potential or actual STIs in the ED	II. Sexually transmitted infections A. Male & Female: Herpes, HPV, Trich, GC, Chlamydia, Syphilis, HIV B. CDC guidelines C. Expedited partner treatment D. Sites of exposure	Lecture Discussion Clinical Simulation:	L. Gibbons Welch, CNM	30 minutes	Direct observation Simulation evaluation

3. Demonstrate the complete assessment, examination, documentation, and management of a sexual assault patient	IV. Sexual assault A. Role of SANE nurse, RVA B. Male, female, and pediatric considerations C. Forensic evidence collection D. Diagnostics, management	Lecture Discussion Clinical Simulation: 1. Sexual assault exam	_____ SANE	30 minutes	Direct observation Simulation evaluation
4. Demonstrate the appropriate diagnostic evaluation of the pregnant patient presenting with vaginal bleeding, uncontrolled emesis, and/or abdominal pain	VI. The pregnant patient in the ED A. When to send to OB B. First trimester bleeding C. Ectopic pregnancy D. Hyperemesis gravidarum E. Hyperstimulation syndrome F. Precipitous delivery G. Post partum hemorrhage H. Considerations re: Trauma	Lecture Discussion Clinical Simulation: 1. Precipitous delivery 2. OB Ultrasound 3. Post partum hemorrhage	L. Gibbons Welch, CNM	2 hours	Direct observation Simulation evaluation